50 with the Rent Security Deposit Act (N.J.S.A. 46:8-19 et seq.; the "Act"). This includes depositing the Security Deposit into a banking
51 institution or investment company in New Jersey and notifying the Tenant in writing within 30 days of Landlord's receipt of the Secu-
52 rity Deposit of (i) the name and address of the banking institution or investment company; (ii) the type of account in which the Security
53 Deposit is deposited or invested (for example, interest bearing or money market); (iii) the amount of the Security Deposit and (iv) the

56 account or a change in the banking institution or investment company, Landlord shall again notify Tenant of (i) the name and address of 57 the banking institution or investment company; (ii) the type of account in which the Security Deposit is deposited or invested; (iii) the 61 this Lease. If the Landlord makes any such deductions, then upon demand, the Tenant shall promptly restore the Security Deposit to its 62 original amount. The Security Deposit may not be used by the Tenant for the payment of rent without the written consent of the Landlord.

63

64 The Landlord shall inspect the Property after the Tenant vacates at the end of the Term. Within 30 days of the termination of this Lease,
65 the Landlord shall return the Security Deposit plus the undistributed interest to the Tenant, less any charges expended by the Landlord

67 Landlord, and shall be forwarded to the Tenant with the balance of the Security Deposit by personal delivery, registered or certified mail.

70 undistributed interest to the new owner. Landlord shall notify the Tenant of the sale and transfer, as well as the name and address of the 83 because of Tenant's failure to perform under this Lease. Landlord has the same rights against Tenant for failure to pay additional rent as 84 Landlord has for Tenant's failure to pay monthly rent. This means that the Landlord may evict Tenant for failure to pay additional rent.

103 ing known as an eviction. A complaint is served upon the Tenant and the Tenant must appear in court. The Landlord may also evict the

138

139 16. LANDLORD REPAIRS: The Landlord shall make any necessary repairs and replacements to the vital facilities serving the 140 Property, such as the heating, plumbing and electrical systems, within a reasonable time after notice by the Tenant. The Tenant may be

161 prior to vacating. Any and all changes, additions or improvements made without the Landlord's written consent shall be removed by the 162 Tenant on demand by the Landlord. The Property shall be in substantially the same condition at the end of the Term as it was at the begin-
163 ning of the Term, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

164 All permitted changes, additions and improvements shall become the property of the Landlord when completed, shall be fully paid for

If only part of the Property is damaged, the Landlord shall repair the Property within a reasonable period of time. Landlord shall not be 181 obligated to repair or restore any improvements that Tenant has made to the Property.

Either party may cancel this Lease if the Property is so damaged by fire or other casualty that the property cannot be repaired within 90

The Lease shall end if the Property is totally destroyed. The Tenant shall pay rent to the date of destruction.

199 prevent the Landlord from enforcing the obligation at a later time.
